Amazing Dragons

Sculpted by Skagit Academy

Student Cadence Littlefield

I started sculpting really young with playdough and the wax you get off cheese. I graduated to polymer clay and started with small creatures, eventually settling onto dragons. (I've had a fascination and a love for them since I was a kid, following my auntie's love of them closely.) I mostly make them for fun/commission and sell them at a yearly craft fair, but I'm planning on starting an Etsy shop within the next month or so to spread my love of my craft farther.
